I am happy to learn that 'The Chanakya Aerospace Defence & Maritime Review' magazine is publishing Special 600th issue being published on the occasion of DEFEXPO INDIA 2022, as a Special Collectors Issue.

DEFEXPO 2022 will bring all the latest technologies under one roof and provide a myriad of opportunities to the stakeholders. The 12th edition of DefExpo 2022 is being held in Gandhinagar (Gujarat) which aims to further consolidate the showcasing of the indigenous defence manufacturing capabilities and making India a global hub for latest defence technologies. Being organized in Gujarat for the first time, DefExpo 2022 will help galvanize the entrepreneurial Gujarat industrial captains to explore the investment opportunities in defence and aerospace.

I congratulate the Chanakya team on the occasion of its 600th Issue. I also wish Chanakya Aerospace, Defence & Maritime Review all the very best in their future endeavours.
