I am delighted to learn that 'The Chanakya Aerospace, Defence and Maritime Review', an Aerospace and Defence Journal of repute is commemorating 50 years of reportage in the Aerospace and Defence domains.

The magazine over the years has contributed significantly to the development of nuanced viewpoints on various aspects of defence. They have contributed in significant measure to the evolution of a uniquely Indian worldview on matters of national security. I compliment the magazine for conceiving a Special Collectors' Issue to coincide with DEFEXPO INDIA 2020.

My best wishes to the Publisher, Editor, Staff and viewership of the Magazine.

Jai Hind!
