MESSAGE

I am happy to learn that the Chanakya Aerospace Defence & Maritime Review is completing five decades of contribution in Aerospace, Defence & Maritime publishing, and is in its 45th year of print as a monthly periodical.

The constructive role of scholarly publications as an interface between the Defence Services and the public at large cannot be over-emphasised. As our nation grows into a modern and robust economy, the role of security in underwriting national prosperity will remain a key component of our national journey. I am confident that that the Chanakya Aerospace Defence & Maritime Review will continue to provide useful insights into issues concerning the Defence Services in the coming years and help forge greater awareness on matters of national security.

On behalf of the Indian Navy, I extend my compliments to the entire team on achieving this landmark, and wish them continued success in all future endeavours.

Jai Hind.

(Karambir Singh)
